2. VESSEL LOGBOOK

A physical logbook is maintained onboard each vessel. Records: illness/injury, incidents, assistance rendered, unusual occurrences, emergency comms, recreational use. A backup via digital pre-start QR code system also captures key operational data.

Recording of Recreational Use (Schedule 1, Clause 15(4)(g)): Any operation of the vessel for recreational purposes must be recorded in the vessel logbook. The master shall ensure that all recreational use is logged including date, time, persons onboard, and area of operation. This is a mandatory logbook entry under Schedule 1, Clause 15(4)(g).

In the event that any non-crew person (special personnel, client representative, or visitor) embarks the vessel, their name, company, and emergency contact details shall be recorded in the vessel logbook before departure. This record serves as the passenger manifest for that voyage.

All non-crew persons shall complete the vessel-specific induction (FUS-SMS-SGL-04A) before departure.
